

COMPUTER, E-MAIL & INTERNET POLICY

Adopted: 24th May 2022

Review: May 2023

1. BACKGROUND

The Clerk is allocated a computer, printer and mobile telephone for use on Parish Council business only. Councillors use their own IT equipment and phones for use on Parish Council business. Email is regularly used for the management and administration of the business of Datchworth Parish Council

2. SCOPE

This Policy applies to:

- employees
- elected members (councillors)
- members of the public
- other people, companies and organisations in contact with Datchworth Parish Council.

3. POLICY STATEMENT

Datchworth Parish Council encourages the effective use of email. Such use must always be lawful and must not compromise the Council's information and the Clerk's computer system. All users must ensure that their use of email will not adversely affect the Council or its business and not damage the Council's or its employees' reputations or otherwise violate any of the Council's policies.

4. USE OF PARISH COUNCIL OWNED IT AND TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT

Parish Council equipment is provided solely for the use of the clerk, other officer or councillor when carrying out the business of the Parish Council and must not be used by persons other than direct employees of the Parish Council or for any purpose other than Parish Council business.

5. USE OF EMAIL

- All users must use email responsibly. Datchworth Parish Council reserves the right to take disciplinary or legal action against any person who fails to comply with this policy.
- All users must accept that communications via the Clerk's email system is not secure or encrypted and they should take particular care when sending potentially sensitive or confidential information.
- All users must accept and agree that communications both to and from the Council via email may be monitored for the purpose of ensuring appropriate use of this methodology. Users should also be aware that deleted emails may still be accessible from back-up procedures.
- ALL correspondence to be communicated to ALL Councillors for action/information as appropriate, with the exception of confidential HR matters.

6. GENERAL GUIDANCE

Email users are advised to be aware of the following:

- Messages sent to groups of people must be relevant to all concerned.
- Messages sent to groups of people should maintain confidentiality of email addresses by utilising Blind Carbon Copy (BCC) on the email address bar.
- Messages sent by this method are not necessarily seen by the recipient within the current week. If the message is urgent, an alternative method of contact should be used.
- Datchworth Parish Council cannot be held responsible for damages, losses, expenses, demands and/or claims that may be suffered by a user of this facility.
- The Clerk may, from time to time, choose to operate a filtering system in order to monitor offensive or clearly inappropriate material and may quarantine any messages in that category. All such incidences should be reported formally to the Chairman.
- Recipients of abusive or threatening emails must immediately inform the Clerk or the Council's Chairman
- Once a Councillor/Employee has resigned from the Council, they must immediately make provision for the hand over all emails to the Clerk/Chair.

7. BUSINESS USE

- The Clerk or Councillors have the authority to purchase or acquire goods or services on behalf of the Council via email subject to prior agreement of the council.
- Users are informed that email messages have the same status in law as written correspondence (letters and faxes) and are subject to the same legal implications, e.g. may be required to be disclosed in Court.
- Users are required to apply the same high standards to emails as those applied to written correspondence.
- Email inboxes must be checked regularly to ascertain and action all correspondence within that system.
- The Clerk must make available the password for the clerks email when he/she is on holiday or away because of business or sickness.
- Discovery of an email which claims to contain a virus, or a solution to correct a previously transmitted virus, must be reported immediately to all councillors and clerk.
- All users must comply with the relevant licence terms and conditions when copying and/or downloading material.
- Users accept that there is no guarantee of delivery of emails unless acceptance of delivery is requested of the recipient.
- All users must comply with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Freedom of Information Act 2000, when placing personal data in messages or attachments.

8. INAPPROPRIATE USE

- Users must not use email to abuse or inflame others or to harass or threaten anyone. Responding to abuse, harassment or threatening will not be accepted as an excuse for inappropriate language and/or behaviour.
- Users must not send emails containing obscene, abusive or profane language.
- Users must not send, access, display, download, copy or circulate information containing stories, jokes or anecdotes that contain:
  - pornography or sexually orientated images
  - gambling
  - gaming (playing computer games)
  - promotion of unlawful discrimination of any kind
  - promotion of racial or religious hatred
  - threats including the promotion of violence
  - fraudulent or illegal material promotion of illegal and/or unlawful acts
  - information considered to be offensive, inappropriate or disrespectful to others
  - unauthorised and copyrighted material including music.
- Datchworth Parish Council will report to the police all known incidents in which users intentionally send or receive emails containing the following:
  - images of child pornography or child abuse (i.e. images where children are or appear to be under the age of 16 and are involved in sexual activities or posed to be sexually provocative)
  - adult material/pornography that breaches the Obscene Publications Acts (1959 & 1964)
  - criminally racist material
  - users must not send, receive or disseminate proprietary data or any confidential information belonging to Datchworth Parish Council to or from a third party unless authorised.

9. ACCIDENTAL ACCESS TO INAPPROPRIATE MATERIAL

If inappropriate material is accessed accidentally, users must report this immediately to the Chairman. It can then be considered as part of the Council's monitoring procedure.

10. MONITORING

- Serious breaches of this policy by a Council employee or Councillor will amount to gross misconduct and may result in dismissal.
- Serious breaches of this policy by Council employees, Councillors, members of the public or members of any other organisation or company will result in legal or police action.

11. RESPONSIBLE OFFICER

The Clerk and Chairman will be responsible for the administration of this policy on behalf of Datchworth Parish and will report breaches to the Chairman of the Council for advice about further action.

This policy will be reviewed every year or earlier if so required by legislation or additional material.
